John:

Your dinner last evening in honor of General Athit was indeed a pleasure to behold, not only from the excellent food and unique entertainment standpoint, but also the opportunity to bear witness to the cementing of a close relationship with a very key individual [redacted] from whom we will all hear a great deal more. He obviously was pleased and honored at the tribute which was carried off with grace, dignity and a genuine warmth which I believe both our countries must feel towards each other.

I was delighted with the opportunity to attend and thank you very much.

With best wishes and warm regards.

Sincerely,
